Speed bump in datacenter growth in 3Q26 but followed by reacceleration afterward

Reiterate Rating: BUY | PO: 330.00 TWD | Price: 233.50 TWD

2Q ahead on op-leverage; better GM in 3Q on mix

2Q26 net income of NT$9.7bn (EPS of NT$7.7) was 23%/18% ahead of BofAe/consensus, thanks partly to the stronger-than-expected operating leverage. Management further stated that GM (gross margin) held up at 3.4% in 2Q26, thanks to the demand strength from auto/industrial applications. Looking into 3Q26, revenue is guided to be flat QoQ per the mid-point of the guidance range, due mainly to the tapered momentum in datacenter business. Therefore, GM is expected to tick up QoQ given a better mix in 3Q26.

Expect datacenter growth to resume from 4Q26

Beyond 3Q26, WT Micro states that the growth of datacenter business should reaccelerate in 4Q26 and 2027, while it notes that the B/B (book-to-bill) ratio for auto/industrial business is above 1 currently. In other words, the firm shares the view that demand growth in AI (artificial intelligence) applications will sustain, and the growth will likely extend to other non-AI areas for WT Micro.

See boosts from chip inflation; reit. Buy

In the longer term, the company intends to focus more on its data centre and communications businesses, which should enable it to outgrow its industry peers. As a result, we reiterate our Buy rating. Elsewhere, the company has not seen any meaningful impact from tariffs so far. In addition, cost inflation across the semiconductor supply chain is expected to provide a modest boost to revenue growth while offering stronger support for operating leverage.

Raise PO to NT$330 same based on 10x P/E

We raise our target price to NT$330 (from NT$310), based on an unchanged 10x 2H27-1H28E P/E multiple. We also increase our 2026-28E EPS forecasts by 7-11% to reflect the stronger-than-expected 2Q26 results and our updated outlook going forward.

Company Sector

Semiconductors

Company Description

WT Microelectronics was founded in 1993 and went listed in 2002. The firm is the biggest distributor for semiconductor and technology hardware components globally with 10+% market share, and with more than 25k customers and over 400 suppliers. WT Micro operates in dual-headquarter business model, after acquiring Future Electronics in 2024, and now it has over eight thousand employees with over 160 sales branches.

Investment Rationale

We have a Buy rating on WT Micro, as we like the structural growth in datacenter business mainly driven by TPU, as well as the emerging benefits/synergies from the cross-selling with Future Electronics.

Price objective basis & risk

WT Microelectronics (XZOPF)

We base our PO NT$330 on 10x 2H27-1H28E P/E, which is at the mid-end of its historical trading range of 4-15x. This is justified in our view, given the support from: 1) an operating margin of 2.2% in 2027-28E, 2) improving ROE toward 32% in 2027-28E (vs 12% in 2024-25), and 3) 20% EPS CAGR during 2026-28E.

Upside risks to our PO are:

- 1) faster-than-expected demand recovery in auto/industrial verticals, especially from US/Europe market
- 2) a lower interest rate that could alleviate the company's financial burden at non-operating level.

Downside risks to our PO are:

- 1) a revenue decline in datacenter/server related business, which has been the key growth driver during 2021-24
- 2) market share loss as suppliers or customers seek other distributors' help after WT Micro consolidates Future Electronics.
- 3) Potential overhang from share dilution.

Equity Investment Rating Distribution: Global Group (as of 30 Jun 2026)

Coverage Universe	Count	Percent	Inv. Banking Relationships ^{R1}	Count	Percent
Buy	1987	56.11%	Buy	1190	59.89%
Hold	797	22.51%	Hold	496	62.23%
Sell	757	21.38%	Sell	391	51.65%

^{R1} Issuers that were investment banking clients of BofA Securities or one of its affiliates within the past 12 months. For purposes of this Investment Rating Distribution, the coverage universe includes only stocks. A stock rated Neutral is included as a Hold, and a stock rated Underperform is included as a Sell.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst's assessment of both a stock's absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm's guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst's view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock's coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.
