crashing down, taking business investment with it? Can Europe's surprising economic resilience continue, or will dramatic elections, political brinkmanship and rising bond yields herald a return to stagnation?

Join ING's economists on Tuesday 10 November as we launch our 2027 Economic Outlook. We'll take you through our biggest calls for the year ahead, and the unexpected twists that could knock the global economy off course. Sign up here.

You'll learn:

- Whether the US growth story can keep defying expectations, powered by booming AI investment and resilient consumer spending
- How higher energy prices and political upheaval could reshape the outlook for Europe's major economies
- Where inflation is heading and whether we'll see second-round effects from the mounting energy crisis
- What we expect from the major central banks, including the Federal Reserve, European Central Bank and Bank of England
