Alarm cleared with new drivers into 2027; re-it. Buy with PO raise to NT$2,000

Reiterate Rating: BUY | PO: 2,000 TWD | Price: 1,340 TWD

BT substrate price hike resumed from 4Q26

Following (see report) the worries of moderating BT substrate price hike in early September, we now expect NYPCB to still raise relevant ASP by single-digit % in 4Q26, and the hike is purely driven by favorable S/D which will fully translate into the accretion in bottom-line. Following this, BT substrate price will likely be raised by another 20+% in 1Q27, due partly to the cost pass-through. We currently bake in ~10% revenue QoQ with 32-33% GM for 4Q26, but we do not rule out the possibility for its revenue to surprise on the upside, should there be a faster ramp of its ABF substrate capacity in Kunshan.

New driver for 2027: server CPU & mix optimization

Looking into 2027 we expect the benefits of demand overflow on (see report) server CPU side to materialize, and we flag a chance for the firm to record 20+% revenue from the emerging business with AMD server CPU, where NYPCB is working on the qualification in its Shulin site currently and should capture most of the spillover demand if the progress goes smooth. Meanwhile, the firm will likely allocate more capacity from other sites (e.g. Kunshan) to fulfill the demand from Broadcom, which also helps enhance the mix. Currently we model ~50% GM for its ABF substrate business in 2027, but we see chance for further upward revision, driven by more favorable S/D dynamics and mix.

Raise estimates/PO; prime beneficiary of price hike

NYPCB's share price (up ~50%) lags its major peers Unimicron/Kinsus (up ~70%) since late-July, but in our view it is still the best proxy to position for price hike in the substrate market. Judging from (see report) Kinsus' August prints last week, we believe NYPCB remains on track to meet or beat the market's expectations on N-T margins, and we reiterate Buy on the stock. Along with 13%/18% EPS raise in 2027/28E thanks to the more benign pricing/margin outlook driven by further mix improvement and S/D, we raise PO to NT$2,000 (from NT$1,700) same based on 35x 2H27-1H28E P/E.

Company Description

Founded in 1997, NYPCB was listed on the Taiwan Stock Exchange in 2006. The firm is a 67%-owned subsidiary of Nan Ya Plastics Corporation (1303 TT). NYPCB's main products are HDI, PCB and IC substrates (including ABF and BT substrates), widely used in telecommunication, consumers, PC, and Auto applications. The clients include AMD, Broadcom, Samsung, Apple, Continental, etc. The main competitors include Unimicron, Kinsus, Ibiden, Shinko, and SEMCO, etc.

Investment Rationale

We have a Buy rating on NYPCB, in view of its continuous improvement of utilization rate and gross margin across ABF and BT substrate business into 2027, thanks to the robust demand growth from fabless customers and demand overflow in AI ASICs.

Price objective basis & risk

NYPCB (NANYF)

Our PO of NT$2,000 is based on 35x 2H27-1H28E P/E. We view this multiple as fair given ROE and operating margin expansion to 39% and 41% in 2027-28E (vs 13% and 14% in 2025-26E).

Upside risks to our PO are (1) tighter ABF supply, (2) higher SiP/AiP adoption, and (3) less intensified competition pressure in PCB business.

Downside risks are (1) greater ABF expansion from peers, (2) muted SiP/AiP adoption, and (3) more severe competition in PCB business.

Equity Investment Rating Distribution: Global Group (as of 30 Jun 2026)

Coverage Universe	Count	Percent	Inv. Banking Relationships ^{R1}	Count	Percent
Buy	1987	56.11%	Buy	1190	59.89%
Hold	797	22.51%	Hold	496	62.23%
Sell	757	21.38%	Sell	391	51.65%

^{R1} Issuers that were investment banking clients of BofA Securities or one of its affiliates within the past 12 months. For purposes of this Investment Rating Distribution, the coverage universe includes only stocks. A stock rated Neutral is included as a Hold, and a stock rated Underperform is included as a Sell.

FUNDAMENTAL EQUITY OPINION KEY: Opinions include a Volatility Risk Rating, an Investment Rating and an Income Rating. VOLATILITY RISK RATINGS, indicators of potential price fluctuation, are: A - Low, B - Medium and C - High. INVESTMENT RATINGS reflect the analyst’s assessment of both a stock’s absolute total return potential as well as its attractiveness for investment relative to other stocks within its Coverage Cluster (defined below). Our investment ratings are: 1 - Buy stocks are expected to have a total return of at least 10% and are the most attractive stocks in the coverage cluster; 2 - Neutral stocks are expected to remain flat or increase in value and are less attractive than Buy rated stocks and 3 - Underperform stocks are the least attractive stocks in a coverage cluster. An investment rating of 6 (No Rating) indicates that a stock is no longer trading on the basis of fundamentals. Analysts assign investment ratings considering, among other things, the 0-12 month total return expectation for a stock and the firm’s guidelines for ratings dispersions (shown in the table below). The current price objective for a stock should be referenced to better understand the total return expectation at any given time. The price objective reflects the analyst’s view of the potential price appreciation (depreciation).

Investment rating	Total return expectation (within 12-month period of date of initial rating)	Ratings dispersion guidelines for coverage cluster ^{R2}
Buy	≥ 10%	≤ 70%
Neutral	≥ 0%	≤ 30%
Underperform	N/A	≥ 20%

^{R2} Ratings dispersions may vary from time to time where BofA Global Research believes it better reflects the investment prospects of stocks in a Coverage Cluster.

INCOME RATINGS, indicators of potential cash dividends, are: 7 - same/higher (dividend considered to be secure), 8 - same/lower (dividend not considered to be secure) and 9 - pays no cash dividend. Coverage Cluster is comprised of stocks covered by a single analyst or two or more analysts sharing a common industry, sector, region or other classification(s). A stock’s coverage cluster is included in the most recent BofA Global Research report referencing the stock.
