Oct revenues declined 12% MoM: Oct revenues came in at NT$1,107mn, +63% YoY but -12% MoM (vs. 3Q26 revenues +29% QoQ), accounting for 27% of our 4Q26E revenue forecast. WinWay's large MEMS probe card project was largely shipped out in 3Q26, leading to sequentially lower Sep / Oct revenues. Looking into 4Q26, we expect revenue to decline 12% QoQ on lower probe card shipments, while GM should improve further on a richer socket mix. For 2027, we expect continued capacity expansion, rising AI/HPC exposure and new-generation ramps at its US AI ASIC and server CPU customers to drive another record year. 3Q26 in line: Revenue was pre-announced, and GM of 40.5% was in line with Bloomberg consensus, with sequential enhancement given better product mix (less probe card but more coaxial sockets). Opex ratio improved, leading operating income to +50% QoQ, in line with our / Bloomberg consensus. With lower 4Q26E revenue and a lower revenue base into 2027-28E, we cut our 2026/2027/2028E EPS by 4.8%/11.6%/13.5%. We lower our 12m TP to NT$12,800 (implied 66x 2027E PE vs. 97% NI YoY of 2027-28E on avg.) from NT$14,800. Maintain Buy.

Exhibit 1: WinWay's revenue growth outlook

Source: Company data, Goldman Sachs Global Investment Research

Capacity expansion to capture strong demand: Socket machining capacity, which doubled in 2026, is set to double again in 2027, while spring-probe capacity remains on track to reach 9mn pins per month by end-2026, with the in-house ratio rising to 60% in 2027. Reflecting the continued capacity expansion through 2030, we raise our 2027/28E capex to NT$2.0bn/NT$2.4bn (vs. NT$1.4bn/NT$1.7bn previously). With customer demand still running ahead of supply, we continue to believe WinWay's growth will outpace the 50-60% annual TAM expansion highlighted at its

Analysts employed by non-US affiliates are not registered/qualified as research analysts with FINRA in the U.S.

May analyst meeting (see our 26 May note), driven by 1) rising AI/HPC exposure; 2) continued share gains in high-end AI/HPC test sockets; 3) stronger volume growth from its US AI ASIC customer, with new-generation products now ramping; 4) robust CPU test socket demand driven by agentic AI, with its US server CPU customer's next-gen platform starting to ramp and volume set to rise throughout 2027, and we expect repeat orders similar to those seen for the current generation; and 5) continued MEMS probe card growth in 2027.

Earnings revision: We incorporate the 3Q26 results into our model and lower our 2026/2027/2028E EPS by 4.8%/11.6%/13.5%, mainly as we factor in 1) lower 4Q26E revenue (-24.7% vs. our prior forecast) as the large MEMS probe card project was largely shipped out in 3Q26, and 2) a lower revenue base into 2027-28E. These are partly offset by 3) a more favorable product mix, with 2026E GM raised to 41.3% (vs. 39.8% previously), and 4) stronger operating leverage, with 2027E opex ratio lowered to 11.0% (vs. 11.9% previously). Net net, we expect WinWay's revenue to grow 92%/85%/72% YoY in 2026-28E (vs. 112%/95%/70% previously), with GM of 41.3%/41.9%/43.2% (vs. 39.8%/42.0%/43.7% previously). Our EPS cuts mainly reflect the lower revenue base, partly offset by a better product mix in 2026E and a lower opex ratio.

Valuation: As a result of our earnings revisions, we lower our 12-month TP to NT$12,800 (from NT$14,800 previously). Our 12-month TP is still based on 40x 2028E discounted P/E. We apply this to our 2028E EPS, and discount it back to 2027E at a 13.6% CoE to arrive at our TP. Our key assumptions for CoE include: (1) 1.5x beta (sourcing Bloomberg), (2) a 4.25% risk-free rate (inline with GS house-view), and (3) a market risk premium of 6.25% (in line with our GS house view). Maintain Buy.

GS Factor Profile

The Goldman Sachs Factor Profile provides investment context for a stock by comparing key attributes to the market (i.e. our universe of rated stocks) and its sector peers. The four key attributes depicted are: Growth, Financial Returns, Multiple (e.g. valuation) and Integrated (a composite of Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple). Growth, Financial Returns and Multiple are calculated by using normalized ranks for specific metrics for each stock. The normalized ranks for the metrics are then averaged and converted into percentiles for the relevant attribute. The precise calculation of each metric may vary depending on the fiscal year, industry and region, but the standard approach is as follows:

Growth is based on a stock's forward-looking sales growth, EBITDA growth and EPS growth (for financial stocks, only EPS and sales growth), with a higher percentile indicating a higher growth company. Financial Returns is based on a stock's forward-looking ROE, ROCE and CROCI (for financial stocks, only ROE), with a higher percentile indicating a company with higher financial returns. Multiple is based on a stock's forward-looking P/E, P/B, price/dividend (P/D), EV/EBITDA, EV/FCF and EV/Debt Adjusted Cash Flow (DACF) (for financial stocks, only P/E, P/B and P/D), with a higher percentile indicating a stock trading at a higher multiple. The Integrated percentile is calculated as the average of the Growth percentile, Financial Returns percentile and (100% - Multiple percentile).

Financial Returns and Multiple use the Goldman Sachs analyst forecasts at the fiscal year-end at least three quarters in the future. Growth uses inputs for the fiscal year at least seven quarters in the future compared with the year at least three quarters in the future (on a per-share basis for all metrics).

For a more detailed description of how we calculate the GS Factor Profile, please contact your GS representative.

M&A Rank

Across our global coverage, we examine stocks using an M&A framework, considering both qualitative factors and quantitative factors (which may vary across sectors and regions) to incorporate the potential that certain companies could be acquired. We then assign a M&A rank as a means of scoring companies under our rated coverage from 1 to 3, with 1 representing high (30%-50%) probability of the company becoming an acquisition target, 2 representing medium (15%-30%) probability and 3 representing low (0%-15%) probability. For companies ranked 1 or 2, in line with our standard departmental guidelines we incorporate an M&A component into our target price. M&A rank of 3 is considered immaterial and therefore does not factor into our price target, and may or may not be discussed in research.

Ratings, coverage universe and related definitions

Buy (B), Neutral (N), Sell (S) Analysts recommend stocks as Buys or Sells for inclusion on various regional Investment Lists. Being assigned a Buy or Sell on an Investment List is determined by a stock's total return potential relative to its coverage universe. Any stock not assigned as a Buy or a Sell on an Investment List with an active rating (i.e., a stock that is not Rating Suspended, Not Rated, Early-Stage Biotech, Coverage Suspended or Not Covered), is deemed Neutral. Each region manages Regional Conviction Lists, which are selected from Buy rated stocks on the respective region's Investment Lists and represent investment recommendations focused on the size of the total return potential and/or the likelihood of the realization of the return across their respective areas of coverage. The addition or removal of stocks from such Conviction Lists are managed by the Investment Review Committee or other designated committee in each respective region and do not represent a change in the analysts' investment rating for such stocks.

Total return potential represents the upside or downside differential between the current share price and the price target, including all paid or anticipated dividends, expected during the time horizon associated with the price target. Price targets are required for all covered stocks. The total return potential, price target and associated time horizon are stated in each report adding or reiterating an Investment List membership.

Coverage Universe: A list of all stocks in each coverage universe is available by primary analyst, stock and coverage universe at https://www.gs.com/research/hedge.html.

Not Rated (NR). The investment rating, target price and earnings estimates (where relevant) are removed pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when Goldman Sachs is acting in an advisory capacity in a merger or in a strategic transaction involving this company, when there are legal, regulatory or policy constraints due to Goldman Sachs' involvement in a transaction, and in certain other circumstances. Early-Stage Biotech (ES). An investment rating and a target price are not assigned pursuant to Goldman Sachs policy when this company has neither a drug, treatment or medical device that has passed a Phase II clinical trial nor a license to distribute a post-Phase II drug, treatment or medical device. Rating Suspended (RS). Goldman Sachs Research has suspended the investment rating and price target for this stock, because there is not a sufficient fundamental basis for determining an investment rating or target price. The previous investment rating and target price, if any, are no longer in effect for this stock and should not be relied upon. Coverage Suspended (CS). Goldman Sachs has suspended coverage of this company. Not Covered (NC). Goldman Sachs does not cover this company.
