3Q26 preview with GM upside; further upside in 2027/28 on removable lid in Rubin, followed by TPUv9 upgrade; raise PT to NT8,800

Overweight

Price (28 Oct 26):NT$6,375.00

▲Price Target (Dec-27):NT$8,800.00
Prior (Dec-27):NT$7,500.00

We are incrementally positive on Jentech with multiple catalysts ahead. Near-term, we believe the company's 3Q26 earnings could be the first driver with a potential GM beat, which should be reported in the second week of Nov. Longer-term, we believe the drivers are from the incremental adoption of the removable lid in some Nvidia Rubin GPUs in 2027 (in addition to Rubin Ultra), followed by the meaningful Google TPU v9 spec upgrade potential in 2028 as another multi-fold content increase story (based on JPMe), along with a structural margin expansion trend given continued GPU and ASIC upgrades. Thus, we revise up our 2027E and 2028E EPS materially and are now 28% and 18% above the current BBGe consensus.

- 3Q26 preview: expecting a stronger GM growth; 4Q26 outlook: slightly better rev growth. We revise up our 3Q26 GM to 50.1% (vs current BBGe consensus at 48.7%), which implies another quarter of strong GM expansion (vs 2Q/1Q26 GM at 46.8%/41.8%), driven by better product mix to more AI server business. Reported 3Q26 revenue of NT$9.5bn was largely in line with the company's guidance, and the 30% QoQ growth was mainly driven by the decent ramp of Rubin GPU. As the Rubin 1-piece lid shipment should remain at high volume into 4Q26, we believe the company's revenue momentum will also continue, with incremental growth from small volume of removable lid shipment. Hence, we are now modeling Jentech's 4Q26 revenue to grow 3% QoQ, with GM further expanding thanks to ongoing mix enhancement.
- Further 2027 upside from incremental Rubin removable lid adoption; 2028 another earnings level-up year driven by meaningful upgrade in TPU v9. We revise up our 2027E and 2028E revenue estimates materially by 22% and 14%, which are now 24% and 16% above consensus, respectively. For the 2027 upward revision, it mainly reflects the incremental adoption of removable lid (3-piece lid) in partial Rubin GPU from the next 1-2 quarter, in addition to Rubin Ultra, as long as the company can ramp up its yield and production of removable lid in the next few months with on-schedule capacity expansion (new Taoyuan Aerotropolis plant) and equipment move-in (e.g. the in-house screw locking equipment). More encouragingly, we believe 2028 will see even greater earnings upside with Google TPU v9 likely upgrading its heat spreader solution significantly to 2-piece or 3-piece lid design, in our view, as the potential chip size (4-die) and TDP (potentially 2k+W or even higher) should be a big level-up compared to v8, which makes the current stiffener-only solution insufficient. As the content of 2-piece or 3-piece lid solution could be 5-10x higher than the v8 stiffener, Google TPU v9 (with meaningful volume) could drive the next wave of the earnings upgrade cycle for Jentech from 2028 (following Nvidia Rubin/Rubin Ultra as the major driver in 2027).
- Implications. We lift our 2027E and 2028E EPS by 28% and 17% to NT$193 and NT$295, respectively, reflecting the incremental removable lid adoption in Rubin and the potential Google TPUv9 upgrade. Hence, our new Dec-27 PT is revised up to NT$8,800 (from NT$7,500), still based on 30x 2028E P/E,

Summary Investment Thesis and Valuation

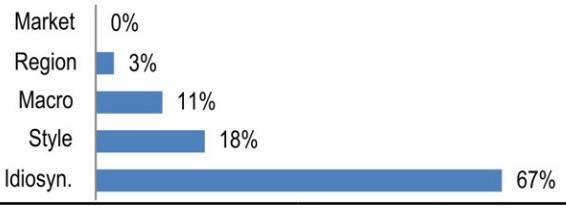

Investment Thesis

Jentech (OW) is the largest packaging-level cooling component maker worldwide, with leading production capabilities across heat spreader products (including stiffener and all kinds of lids). We expect the company to show a ~90% EPS CAGR over 2024-28, driven by solid heat spreader content growth in future-gen AI chips and increasing TAM into new solutions (e.g., CPO switch ASIC). In addition, the company is reinforcing its product portfolio with new offerings in cold plate and CPU server sockets for chip customers. We believe Jentech's technology leadership in the structural cooling upgrade trend and its new TAM expansion will continue to support its superior earnings power in the long term.

Valuation

Our Dec-27 PT of NT$8,800 is based on 30x 2028E P/E, which is largely in line with Jentech's three-year average P/E when the AI server boom started.

Investment Thesis, Valuation and Risks

Jentech Precision Industrial Co. (Overweight; Price Target: NT $8,800.00)

Investment Thesis
Jentech (OW) is the largest packaging-level cooling component maker worldwide, with leading production capabilities across heat spreader products (including stiffener and all kinds of lids). We expect the company to show a ~90% EPS CAGR over 2024-28, driven by solid heat spreader content growth in future-gen AI chips and increasing TAM into new solutions (e.g. CPO switch ASIC). In addition, the company is reinforcing its product portfolio with new offerings in cold plate and CPU server sockets for chip customers. We believe Jentech's technology leadership in the structural cooling upgrade trend and its new TAM expansion will continue to support its superior earnings power in the long term.

Valuation
Our Dec-27 PT of NT$8,800 is based on 30x 2028E P/E, which is largely in line with Jentech's three-year average P/E when the AI server boom started.

Risks to Rating and Price Target
Downside risks to our rating and price target include: 1) Potential delay in mainstream 3-piece/removable lid design adoption, and 2) market share loss from competition.

J.P. Morgan ratings or designations: OW = Overweight, N= Neutral, UW = Underweight, NR = Not Rated

Explanation of Equity Research Ratings, Designations and Analyst(s) Coverage Universe:
J.P. Morgan uses the following rating system: Overweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will outperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe); Neutral (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will perform in line with the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe); and Underweight (over the duration of the price target indicated in this report, we expect this stock will underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe. NR is Not Rated. In this case, J.P. Morgan has removed the rating and, if applicable, the price target, for this stock because of either a lack of a sufficient fundamental basis or for legal, regulatory or policy reasons. The previous rating and, if applicable, the price target, no longer should be relied upon. An NR designation is not a recommendation or a rating. Some stocks under coverage have a rating but no price target; in these cases, we expect the stock will outperform/perform in line/underperform the average total return of the stocks in the Research Analyst's, or the Research Analyst's team's, coverage universe of the relevant duration of the region. In our Asia (ex-Australia and ex-India) and U.K. small- and mid-cap Equity Research, each stock's expected total return is compared to the expected total return of a benchmark country market index, not to those Research Analysts' coverage universe. If it does not appear in the Important Disclosures section of this report, the certifying Research Analyst's coverage universe can be found on J.P. Morgan's Research website, https://www.jpmorganmarkets.com.
