Predates the Middle East crisis but still an important update on core inflation

See  February: preview and analysis (PDF 716KB)

We estimate a 0.1% rise in the February CPI holding the annual pace flat at 3.8%yr, the third month in a row at this pace.

Our February Trimmed Mean estimate is 0.3% (0.34%) holding the annual pace at 3.4%yr. The six-month annualised pace lifts from 3.4%yr to 3.6%yr.

Our current estimate for the March quarter CPI is 1.2%qtr lifting the annual pace from 3.6%yr to 3.9%yr.

Westpac's preliminary estimate for the March quarter Trimmed Mean is 0.9%qtr (0.88%) with the annual pace lifting from 3.4%yr to 3.5%yr.

The conflict in the Middle East had Westpac revise our forecasts with headline inflation now peaking at 4.6%yr in the June quarter before easing back to 3.9%yr by end 2026.

Core inflation is forecast to lift to 3.6%yr at the June quarter 2026 and not returning to 3.4%yr till end 2026.

Our forecasts are based on the scenario with the Strait of Hormuz closed for one month. There is a clear risk to this scenario as the conflict continues.

The ABS is currently publishing quarterly underlying inflation measures in a manner consistent with the history of price collection frequency. We have replicated this process and find it could shave as much as 0.1ppt off our current TM estimate for the March quarter.

Further important information regarding sustainability-related content: This material may contain statements relating to environmental, social and governance (ESG) topics. These are subject to known and unknown risks, and there are significant uncertainties, limitations, risks and assumptions in the metrics, modelling, data, scenarios, reporting and analysis on which the statements rely. In particular, these areas are rapidly evolving and maturing, and there are variations in approaches and common standards and practice, as well as uncertainty around future related policy and legislation. Some material may include information derived from publicly available sources that have not been independently verified. No representation or warranty is made as to the accuracy, completeness or reliability of the information. There is a risk that the analysis, estimates, judgements, assumptions, views, models, scenarios or projections used may turn out to be incorrect. These risks may cause actual outcomes to differ materially from those expressed or implied. The ESG-related statements in this material do not constitute advice, nor are they guarantees or predictions of future performance, and Westpac gives no representation, warranty or assurance (including as to the quality, accuracy or completeness of the statements). You should seek your own independent advice.
